THURSDAY NIGHT TEEN NIGHT!

Teens will further develop their creative abilities, increase their artistic skills, awareness, aesthetics and learn about art of the past and present and future. If you’re thinking about enrolling in Art School in College you may consider submitting the projects you created during this program in your portfolio! High School students that are 18 years old are eligible to take these teen classes with proof of high school enrollment from the school.

Open Clay/Pottery Studio Guided Studio
Portfolio Development (Ages 13–17)

Develop pieces for your portfolio to use for college applications. Each student will have scheduled appointments with the instructor during class time for personal artistic guidance. Then students will work independently in the studio with the instructor nearby to help as needed. This course will not only help prepare works for your portfolio but will also help you become a more creative, independent thinker and artist, and give you a taste of what a college art course is like.
